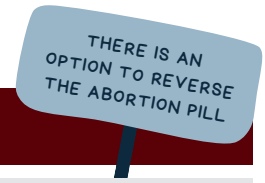
IF ABORTION BECOMES A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT IN VIRGINIA ...

Your Local Pregnancy Center Could be Exposed to Lawsuits Medical Providers and PRCs are Facing Across the U.S.



False Advertising

NIFLA VS BONITA (CALIFORNIA)

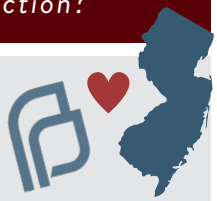
The California Attorney General sued pregnancy centers for discussing the Abortion Pill Reversal (APR) using progesterone.

Misleading

NIFLA VS JAMES (NEW YORK)

The New York AG sued pro-life centers under business fraud laws for talking about the Abortion Pill Reversal.

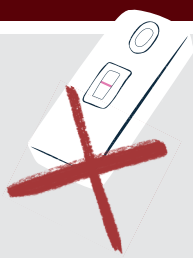
Collusion or Consumer Protection?



FIRST CHOICE VS PLATKIN (NEW JERSEY)

The AG worked with Planned Parenthood and targeted a pro-life group with subpoenas based on beliefs.

Helping Isn't Allowed



NIFLA VS CLARK (VERMONT)

Laws restrict non-medical staff at PRCs from offering over-the-counter pregnancy tests or counseling.

Saving Lives, Under Investigation

BELLA HEALTH & MYNYK VS WEISTER (COLORADO)

Colorado laws prohibit APR and are investigating providers who offer it, like Nurse Mynyk.

False Advertising

NIFLA VS TRETO (ILLINOIS)

Laws force pro-life medical staff to refer for abortions, violating conscience rights.

13 Years of Records

OBRIA GROUP VS FERGUSON (WASHINGTON)

The AG issued sweeping Civil Investigative Demands 13+ years of records without proof of wrongdoing.

Warning Labels

MASSACHUSETTS

Massachusetts launched a state campaign warning against pregnancy centers, calling them harmful despite their free support services.

CNPENINSULA.ORG/NOABORTIONAMENDMENT